

Autobiography Assignment

Share with the class about you.

Part I. Share with us some interesting aspects of you. For example, you can try to answer some of the questions below. But you are definitely not confined to these things. Feel free to share something else.

- A very special moment of your life and a Bible passage God gave you at that time.
- What happened last time when you said sorry to somebody and you really meant it honestly?
- If you can have a free dinner with anyone at any place you pick, what would be the person and the place you pick? Why?
- An experience that made you a better person.
- The person who has most significantly shaped your character.
- The most challenging task you have ever accomplished.
- Your favorite way of spending a free afternoon.
- What do you most value in friendship?
- The most memorable moment in your life so far.
- What do you often do when you are afraid (or sad, or happy, or anxious ...)?
- A chore you absolutely hate doing.
- Submission: Put down at least 600 words for the sharing. Submit what you write down through Canvas. We'll find time this semester to learn from what you share and to pray for you.

Part II.

- Read and reflect on Genesis 28:10~22 about Jacob and the beginning of his journey.
  - Develop your thoughts and you plan about your future in the journey.
1. Whom do you want to be 1, 4, and 10 years from now spiritually, intellectually, and socially?
  2. In what aspects do you need to grow to become that person?
  3. How do you plan for your growth in these aspects? What might be some barriers or challenges for you to get over in the process?
  4. Pray and put down at least one passage in the Bible that you think is a promise or guidance regarding your journey ahead.
  5. Submission: Put down at least 800 words regarding your thoughts and your plan. Submit what you write down through Canvas. Keep your thoughts and the plan with you while you continue with your journey ahead under God's providence.
